

2003 Central States Seed Conference

Planting the Seed for the Future...

sowing seeds of family fun!

Manhattan is a wonderful city for both children and adults! There are many things to do that are fun and educational, and we have selected a couple of these that are sure to make your Manhattan experience enjoyable. Please join us for a fun-filled day on Wednesday exploring some of the attractions of this great midwest city. For more information on Manhattan, call the Manhattan Convention of Visitors at 785/776-8285 or log on to the website at www.manhattan.org

The Ramada In Plaza Hotel is very family-oriented with an outdoor pool, exercise room, sauna, and whirlpool. Cribs are available upon request by calling. Located in mid-town Manhattan, there are many nice shopping areas nearby as well.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 2003      SPOUSES & SPROUTS PROGRAMS

SPOUSE PROGRAM

10:00 a.m. - Kansas State University Gardens--premier rose garden, beautiful water features, lilies dated back to 1800s, butterfly conservatory. Lots of beautiful flowers and scenery to appreciate.

11:30 p.m. - Lunch at Harry's Uptown

1:30 p.m. - Beach Museum of Art--Gesine Janzen: 2003 Friends of the Beach Museum of Art Gift Print Artist, Works on Paper, Recent Acquisitions, Shades of Home-Patrick Dougherty, an internationally known sculptor and many more artists on display.

SPROUTS PROGRAM

10:00 a.m. - KSU Insect Farm--Ready to hear a Madagascar Hissing Cockroach hiss? Want to get close enough to a Honey Bee Hive to see the Queen Bee without getting stung? Then buzz on over to an insect zoo that's humming with bug life from spinning spiders to burrowing beetles. Bugs are swarming K-State and it's a showcase of hoppers, creepers and flyers you won't want to miss.

12:00 p.m.- Lunch-- Kids choice

1:00 p.m.- Manhattan Sunset Zoo--After the Insect Farm the kids can see some bigger animals. Long-awaited Caribbean Flamingo eggs arrived and are hatching. Plus lions, tigers and bears, a wide range of animals. Childrens petting zoo. Lots of fun for kids and adults alike.

Be sure to pick up your Seed Coloring Book and t-shirt for your Sprouts!